

Application for Admission

Bachelor of Science in Education

Certification in Elementary and Special Education

GORDON
STATE COLLEGE

About the Program

A maximum number of qualified junior year candidates will be admitted each fall semester for the program. The schedule of the program of studies is listed below. This will lead to certification in early childhood and special education general curriculum (P-5).

Note the requirement includes a summer semester. Candidates will participate in cohorts for all coursework, including field experiences and teaching internships (900 hours total) to be arranged with area elementary school partners. Graduates must also complete Georgia certification requirements including passing scores on appropriate GACE tests.

Admission Procedures

Admission to the Bachelor of Science in Education Program is granted on a space-available basis. Applications that meet all admission requirements will be ranked according to their qualifications and admitted in order of their rank, starting with the most qualified, until all available spaces are filled. As such, not all individuals who meet the admission requirements may be admitted. The application process will open in early January, and review of completed applications will begin as soon as they are received. Since the program of studies involves working in schools, prospective candidates must also consent to a criminal background check. Once admitted to the program, finger printing may be required prior to field placement.

Special Note

Disciplinary action at Gordon State College and any other institution that the student has attended, including the military, may prevent admission. Additionally, two disciplinary referral forms received by the School of Education may prevent admission or result in dismissal from the BSSED program after admission. Refer to the Gordon State College Undergraduate Catalog for further details. Applicants should be aware of and agree to the Georgia Educator Code of Ethics.

Notification of Acceptance

Because this is a high demand major, fall admission will be limited, and not all applicants will be admitted. Applicants will be notified by Gordon State College email of Unconditional Acceptance, Acceptance with Conditions, Non-Acceptance, or placement on a waiting list.

Pathways

There are two pathways for certification in Elementary Education/Special Education General Curriculum. Both pathways require the same lower-level courses as well as the same courses within the bachelor's degree program. Both programs require the GACE and related non-course requirements. The course rotation is the same for both pathways. The traditional pathway is open for all applicants. Students in the traditional program will be placed in a practicum setting by our Director of Field Placement. The parapro-to-teacher pathway requires that a student have a position as paraprofessional in a public school setting. The student will be responsible for communicating with his/her principal and devising a plan for practicums within the school system. Note that these practicums must be in the K-5 setting. Courses will be held online for paraprofessionals only.
