

Mission Statement
Gordon State College
Counseling and Accessibility Department

The mission of Counseling and Accessibility Services (CAS) is to provide confidential counseling and disability services that serve emotional, psychological and physical needs of students. These services include professional and culturally competent mental health counseling, crisis intervention, and campus outreach and support.

