“Tell me something good!”

Big shoutout to Grounds Department: Tobias really appreciates their constant willingness to help out and provide extra manpower when needed. His department often has just him and Edward handling event setups and furniture moving, and the Grounds team is always there to step in with heavy lifting and campus setups. “Their teamwork is incredible, and we’re truly grateful for all their support. Thank you for always going above and beyond! I don’t know much about landscaping, but I’m happy to return the favor—just let me know!”
