

Instructions for STEM and Nursing Abstracts

The purpose of an abstract is to present a succinct summary of a research project. The topic of the research should be stated (viz., questions addressed and/or hypotheses tested), then followed by method(s), result(s), and conclusion(s), in that order. Abstracts should not include direct quotes or citations. Abstracts should be a maximum of 350 words.